Come, Lord Jesus is a companion in the waiting season of Advent. It's a quiet invitation to sit with the weight of waiting, and recount the faithfulness of God, to trace the hope of Christmas, and prepare the way for Jesus' coming into the world, into our own hearts, into our everyday, ordinary time. With its offering of a daily reading, a reflection, prayer and one, or two reflective questions for you to contemplate, this book is a welcome "friend" to readers during the Advent, or any other season of waiting.

What if for Lent this year, you gave up something other than chocolate or TV.' What if the thing God wants us to give up costs more than what we think we can bear? "The church father Irenaeus said that the glory of God is a human being fully alive. That's Kris Camealy's goal in Holey, Wholly, Holy. She wants to help me and you come fully alive to the risen Christ who is fully alive in us." ~ Kimbberlee Conway Ireton, Author, Circle of Seasons: Meeting God In The Church Year. Writing as a friend and encourager, Kris offers hope and encouragement for the journey of moving from broken in sin (Holey) to learning to surrender (Wholly) to claiming the gift of grace through Christ (Holey).

These Advent reflections by the abbess of a Poor Clare monastery and accomplished spiritual writer focus our attention on the coming of Jesus into our lives. There is a double movement to this coming: our active preparation to be ready for him, on one hand, and our patient waiting for the Lord to arrive in his own good time, on the other. There is an art to this simultaneous preparing and waiting, and who knows better than the late and beloved Mother Mary Francis how to encourage us in our attempts to master this art. The joyful yet challenging teaching that we have come to expect from Mother Mary Francis is on display in these Advent conferences written for her spiritual daughters at the Poor Clare Monastery of Our Lady of Guadalupe. Meditating on passages from Scripture about the coming of the Messiah into both our world and our hearts, Mother challenges us to persevere in overcoming our faults, while keeping our eyes on the Lord who has called us to himself, for it is he who, through the gifts of his grace, will complete in us the work of sanctification which he has begun. Although written for Advent, the wisdom of Mother Mary Francis collected by her sisters for this volume is profitable at any time, because a Christian life is one of constant growth into the very likeness of God.

We say "God is in control!" But we live as if we bear sole responsibility for circumstances clearly beyond our ability. God doesn't need our help, He wants our hearts. What we don't realize is that it's total surrender to God that sets us free from the burden of helping ourselves. When we give God our whole heart, He changes our whole life.

How to focus on Christ during Advent Most Christians agree that Christmas is all about Jesus, yet most of us spend little time preparing our hearts to celebrate Him. Why is this? Partly because we don't know how. In Unwrapping the Names of Jesus, Asheritah Ciuciu leads readers through the four weeks of Advent (Hope, Preparation, Joy, and Love). Each week: Begins with an interactive family devotional that equips readers to celebrate Advent together Offers five daily reflections that focus on that week's name of Jesus Includes suggestions for fun-filled family activities or service projects This devotional can be used by readers in their own personal worship times or as a tool to engage in family worship during the busy holiday season. Either way, participants will gain a greater sense of awe and wonder at who Jesus is. By focusing on the person and character of Jesus throughout the Advent season, readers will prepare their hearts so that when they admire the live nativity, sit in the candlelight service, or wake up on Christian morning, they can join the faithful who sing from the bottom of their hearts, "O come, let us adore Him, Christ the Lord!"

The author became inspired to write books about the Church of Jesus Christ. He has been a believer of Jesus Christ, what the Holy Bible describes as a Born-Again christian; for over 35 years, he has witnessed, experienced, and read about how the church; that was supposed to become the launching pad for the sinful human to connect to a sinless and a just God; has become perverted by shameless, greedy and wicked leaders, who are allowing their members to perish for lack of knowledge of knowledge of God's Word. I became inspired to write a book.
