Popularity is the best revenge. In the final weeks of eighth grade, Lauren Wood made a choice. She betrayed her best friend, Helen, in a manner so publicly humiliating that Helen had to move to a new town just to save face. Ditching Helen was worth it, though, because Lauren started high school as one of the It Girls--and now, at the start of her senior year, she's the cheerleading captain, the quarterback's girlfriend, and the undisputed queen bee.

When given the opportunity to move back to town with a new name and look, Helen realizes this is the perfect time to enact her revenge on Lauren Wood. Helen's revenge will be so utterly thorough that Lauren will be ruined forever, and Helen relishes the thought. As Helen slowly realizes, however, some parts of revenge are remarkably easy, while others are much more complicated. Helen's hatred of Lauren has driven her for the past three years; does Helen even know who she herself is anymore?
