Japanese: The Spoken Language is an introductory textbook series for learning Japanese. JSL was written by Eleanor Harz Jordan in collaboration with Mari Noda. Part 1 was published in 1987 by Yale Language Press, Part 2 in 1988, and Part 3 in 1990. The series differs from most Japanese language textbooks in many ways, most basically in that it focuses exclusively on the spoken language and leaves discussion of any aspect of the written language to other textbooks, such as the parallel series Jap

Japanese: The Spoken Language Part 1 (JSL) is a greatly improved version of a frequently-used textbook for introductory Japanese. The new version is completely rewritten and printed on slightly better paper, with better typefaces (including lots of boldface). The older version, Beginning Japanese by Jordan, which is found in most bookstores, was published in 1963, is out of date and is definitely not recommended.
