However, Michelle Hansen did the complete opposite in Painted Blind. Even if some areas felt a bit unrealistic at times, I'm glad she stuck with the story overall. Strongly recommended for any Greek Mythology lover who's looking for an interesting yet fun retelling.

Book Review: Painted Blind by Michelle A. Hansen | Mboten

Michelle A. Hansen really put a lot of thought in Painted Blind. It is evident for the reader because her ideas are outstanding. For one she states that a leaf in the story is used to clean one's teeth. Next, she came out with the idea of putting a pendent on a girl's forehead and ear to show that she is engaged.
