The General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) is the biggest change to data protection requirements since the creation of the first data protection regulation in the 1980s. One of the biggest impacts is that organisations irrespective of their geographic location will need to comply, or face the potential of a large fine (the greater of e20m or 4% of global revenue).If your organisation collects or processes personal information (similar to Personal Identifiable Information/PII in the United States) or those within the EU then your organisation will need to have a process in place to comply.The purpose of this book to introduce the reader to the GDPR, and what it requires organisations to do in order to comply, and to keep the personal information that it processes protected. This book is written in a way that will help the reader to understand the requirements for their organisation, and is armed with the knowledge to not only learn more, but also to judge the value of the sometimes mid-leading information that is published on the Internet about the subject.This book includes sections on: " The aims of the GDPR" "The differences between the Data Protection Directive and the GDPR" "The Data Subject's rights" "The importance of Consent within the GDPR "Breach notification requirements" "The need for a data protection officer" "Geographic scope and requirements" "Vendors, Outsourcing and the GDPR" "Starting the compliance process" "EU-US Privacy Shield" "Data Protection around the worldThe author, Darren Wray, has written this book drawing upon his many years experience of implementing solutions and helping organisations become and maintain data protection regulatory requirements. The style adopted within this book means that not matter if the reader is looking to start the compliance process for a multinational enterprise, or a small organisation they will find what they're looking for.For readers from outside of the UK the book covers some of the requirements and some of the synergies that the GDPR has with other data protection around the world.

Without William Shakespeare, we wouldn't have literary masterpieces like Romeo and Juliet. But without Henry Condell and John Heminges, we would have lost half of Shakespeare's plays forever! After the death of their friend and mentor, the two actors are determined to compile the First Folio and preserve the words that shaped their lives. They'll just have to borrow, beg, and band together to get it done. Amidst the noise and color of Elizabethan London, THE BOOK OF WILL finds an unforgettable true story of love, loss, and laughter, and sheds new light on a man you may think you know.

This book provides an accessible overview of the changes you need to make in your organization to comply with the new law. --

A Passion for China is a personal celebration of the everyday beauty of tableware. 'As we move through our daily lives, eating breakfast, sipping an afternoon cup of tea or gathering for a family dinner, the patterned ceramic objects we live with are precious witnesses to our stories. We eat from them, they warm our hands after a cold walk outdoors and we pull them out to celebrate the births, marriages and lives of our loved ones.' Acclaimed ceramicist, artist and designer Molly Hatch explores the family stories behind beloved items - the bowls and cups we have inherited or chosen with love and care - and brings the history of porcelain, potteries and patterns to life through her stunning, hand-drawn illustrations. A tribute to the rich heritage of the vintage plates, jugs and pots that make our homes our own. Please note this is a fixed-format ebook with colour images and may not be well-suited for older e-readers.
